Your Personalised AstroCartoGraphy® Report

This tailored AstroCartoGraphy® report has been created to guide you in identifying geographical locations that align harmoniously with your birth chart — places that may offer greater ease, purpose, and fulfilment.

Based on the questions at hand and your specific relocation goals, we focus on destinations that are both astrologically significant and practically viable for your goals.

AstroCartoGraphy is not a one-size-fits-all formula. Instead, it is a dynamic tool that aligns the unique planetary imprint of your birth chart with geographic coordinates to reveal where certain energies are enhanced. It becomes especially meaningful when you're actively considering a move and have a shortlist of viable destinations.

Rather than highlighting every possible location worldwide, this report thoughtfully narrows down options to regions you're likely to consider based on the astrological potential of each place.

For each destination, we explore the influence of AstroCartoGraphy lines, Local Space directions, and Paran connections, along with the orb strength and, sometimes, your current and upcoming Dasha periods. This multi-layered approach helps identify which places are more likely to support your prosperity, emotional well-being, relationships, and spiritual growth, should relocation be feasible 🧡 🌞 🏠.

has been placed on active periods in your Vimsottari Dasha as well as geodetic overlays when available.

Current Locations Analysis

◆ Hill River, NY Located close to 39°57'N latitude, this area lies just south of the strong Paran cluster visible around 40°23'–41°10'. Though it narrowly misses the most intense Parans, it still holds subtle influence from:

-  Sun Setting / Mars Setting nearby: good for vitality and initiating leadership in coaching.
-  Local Space Saturn and Mercury vectors are moderately present, encouraging organized communication and mentorship.

Conclusion: Decent base for spiritual work. Offers structure but could feel too serious or routine at times. Best used as a grounding base with frequent travel to more vibrant locations.

◆ Vermont (Burlington Region): You are under the influence of Venus Upper / Neptune Rising near 44N29.

-  This is an ethereal combination — fantastic for spiritual dreaming, visualization, and writing.
-  Good for retreat-style teaching or one-on-one sessions in nature.

Conclusion: Inspirational energy. Better suited to passive spiritual practices and creative inspiration than active business scaling.

◆ Tampa, FL, Located south of your major Paran zones, Tampa lacks strong angular planetary influence.

-  No ACG angularity or Paran within the orb.
-  Local Space Moon vector could offer emotional sensitivity but little practical support.

Conclusion: Soft, vacation-like energy. Not aligned with building or anchoring a strong coaching brand. It can be used as a rest zone.

Techniques used: Analysis of ACG angular proximity, Paran bands within 2°, and Local Space planetary azimuths.

🌍 Exploring Your Best East Coast Locations

10 Philadelphia, PA Here, you are under the powerful influence of the Moon Upper / Sun Setting Paran line (orb 1°35'). This is an excellent location for nurturing emotional confidence and beginning new chapters in your personal life. Self-reliance and emotional independence are favoured here, making it ideal for both business leadership and romantic pursuits.

This Paran enhances your image and feelings, often manifesting as a refreshed sense of identity — perfect for stepping into the spotlight with a new business or relationship.

Techniques used: Paran overlay, ACG line proximity, current Moon-Sun focus during Venus Dasha.

◆ Baltimore, MD / Silver Spring / Bethesda Corridor This area features the Venus Upper / Chiron Setting Paran (orb 0°57'), which opens the heart to healing relationships and attracting partners who play significant transformational roles in your life. Ideal for deep emotional work, this is a place where you could find or nurture long-term love.

From a business perspective, this energy strongly supports your work as a spiritual guide, healer, or coach. The Venus-Chiron influence enhances your capacity to counsel, hold space, and guide others toward love and wholeness.

Techniques used: Paran overlays, Venus Dasha relevance, Chiron healing vector alignment.

◆ Staten Island, NY (Birthplace) Being your place of birth, this location activates multiple Parans:

- ⚡ Sun Setting / Mars Setting (0°12') – Increases motivation and the desire to act.
- ⚖️ Saturn Rising / North Node Lower (0°35') – Encourages taking responsibility within communities.
- 🪐 Uranus Rising / Chiron Setting (0°35') – Promotes individuality and spiritual healing.

You are likely to feel a deep karmic activation in your dharma here. Relationships may be catalytic, offering significant growth. While this area may feel intense, it's also energetically potent for rebirth, structure, and transformation.

Techniques used: Natal paran cluster, Vimsottari Venus dasha alignment, ACG Mars-Sun influence.

◆ Richmond, VA / Norfolk / Arlington Belt This zone is bathed in gentle, romantic Venusian energy based on geodetic overlays. Richmond (37N32) and Norfolk (36N55) lie within the broader paran belt.

Here, you may find emotional stability, beauty, and potential for both partnership and building a home. There's balance and natural ease, especially for women stepping into the nurturing yet magnetic aspects of spiritual leadership.

Techniques used: Paran latitude proximity, geodetic Venus zone, alignment with Venus Mahadasha and natal Venus in Leo (Purva Phalguni).

◆ Trenton / Edison / NJ Suburbs These areas overlap with the Moon-Sun-Venus paran zone between 40N20 and 40N43. While you're currently based in this area, this confirms that your environment is already infused with nurturing, creative, and emotionally intelligent energy.

However, you might feel the pull toward expansion — something fresher or with more transformational potential.

Techniques used: Paran band overlay, local space azimuth check, comparison with birthplace energy.

◆ Burlington, VT With Venus Upper / Neptune Rising influence nearby (44N29), Burlington emanates dreamy, romantic, and mystical energy. It's great for writing, meditation, or hosting spiritual retreats.

This is less about action and more about inspiration. Use this location as a retreat, not a business base or long-term home.

Techniques used: ACG proximity to Venus-Neptune lines, alignment with Venus Mahadasha.

Select Overseas Locations for Business Expansion

Lisbon, Portugal

Easily accessible from the East Coast US, Lisbon is a safe and vibrant hub with spiritual, artistic, and entrepreneurial energy. It resonates strongly with your Venus Dasha, offering charm and connection. The Neptune-Moon energy here enhances compassion, vision, and attracting a global audience.

Techniques used: ACG Neptune & Moon angularity, relocation chart analysis.

Dublin, Ireland

Dublin holds potential for grounding your spiritual message into tangible offerings. Mars and Mercury energies near this region support launching coaching programs, writing, and action-oriented mentorship. It's also a bridge between the US and Europe.

Techniques used: ACG Mars/Mercury lines, local space proximity.

Costa Rica

Although not transatlantic, Costa Rica offers an affordable, spiritually fertile environment with Sun/Chiron line overlaps. Great for retreats, eco-conscious mentoring, and community building.

Techniques used: ACG Sun-Chiron angles, geodetic overlay for dharma.

 Are Overseas Locations Better Than the US? While overseas options such as Lisbon, Dublin, and Costa Rica hold considerable promise — especially for spiritual retreat work, creative inspiration, and connecting with a wider audience — they do not significantly surpass the top East Coast US locations in terms of core astrocartographic strength. The Parans, ACG angularities, and local space vectors in Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Staten Island show stronger alignment with your Venus Mahadasha and Vedic indicators. Therefore, expanding overseas can be enriching, but it should be considered an enhancement rather than a replacement.

 Test the Waters Before You Relocate It's always wise to "live into the chart" before making a full relocation. If a place feels promising on paper, spend a few days or weeks there and observe how your body, mind, and work respond. Take note of synchronicities, energy levels, people you meet, and clarity of thought. This practical exploration helps integrate the astrocartographic influence experientially — and confirms if the energy supports your coaching and mentoring dharma.

☀️ Vedic Astrology Support You are currently in Venus Mahadasha (2019–2039), a time that emphasizes love, beauty, artistic growth, and harmonious living. Venus is in Leo (Purva Phalguni), magnifying charisma and the desire for radiant connection.

Your Moon in Anuradha Nakshatra (Pada III) reflects emotional intelligence and spiritual loyalty. This nakshatra supports your role as a mentor and pathfinder for others, especially in emotional and spiritual transformation.

With Ascendant in Capricorn – Vedic position (Uttara Ashadha III), grounded ambition and long-term vision are your guiding themes. Locations that support leadership, discipline (Saturn), and structured mentorship will help you build lasting impact through your coaching and spiritual work.
